Hola Amigos,

I hope you're all well.

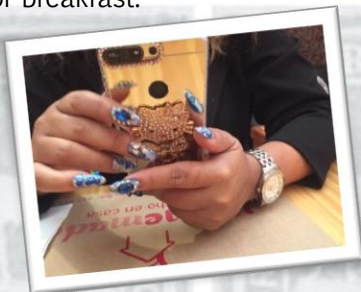

After an unexpected incident in the jungle, J & her daughter, R, moved back to Lima. We were able to find last-minute accommodation and I met them at the bus station and got them settled in. This is allowing J to get an earlier start on completing paperwork before she leaves for the UK, she is able to attend the weekly group Bible study & I am meeting up with them on a weekly basis as well. K, who was released from Santa Monica in July also got in touch with us and Mary & I met her for breakfast.

Bridge of Sighs, Barranco

No Queue Outside Fatima!

Breakfast With K

I am settling in to my new church (iCafe) now that I am in Lima again. We meet in a cultural centre next to the Bridge of Sighs which is a popular tourist spot. At the start of most Sunday meetings, there is a mini concert so we have a number of people wandering in from the street to listen to that. I've met up with the Pastor & his wife to chat about how I can get more involved. 3 people are being baptised and there is a lunch afterwards so I'm looking forward to getting to know more people then.

All the female inmates were transferred from Ancon (a mixed prison) to the 3 women's prisons in Chorrillos. The women in our group are now all in Fatima. They are in different pavilions which means we are unable to meet as a group anymore. Chorrillos is much closer to my house so easier, quicker, safer & cheaper to get to and the queue to get in is either very small or non-existent. Let me know how you are & how I can be praying for you. All my love, Anna xx

Please join me in giving thanks for:

- Temporary emergency accommodation for J & R.
- The transfer from Ancon to Fatima.
- iCafe, Pastor Francis & his wife Carmen.
- Breakfast with K.
- Flowers on my balcony, spring is almost here!

Please continue to pray for:

- The political situation in Peru. Congress was dissolved at the end of September.
- The first baptisms at iCafe on Sunday 6th October.
- K as she looks for a job.
- Our time with J & R in Lima as they prepare to leave for the UK.
